

Anhoury For Insurance Since 1950
Agent of Syrian Insurance Company

ENERGY INSURANCE

Oil, gas, petrochemical and utility Company are arguably exposed to more types of risk than Any other kind of industry, partly due to their critical role within the global economy.

Within the huge investment needed for the exploration of oil and gas in previously unexplored Territories together with new development, the potential for costly losses is ever present.

Our history in the past 18 years and reference list is a major factor to give you all the assistance In order to purchase an insurance policy to protect your interest.

Control and loss prevention:

Identification, management and reduction of exposure risk are a primary consideration for most Participants in the Energy industry, however large or small. So the Syrian Insurance Company With cooperation of the reinsurers and Anhoury are in a position to offer you qualified loss Control services and demonstration of a commitment to safety and loss prevention that could Make a critical difference as to how underwriters respond to a risk. It can assist client in the Development of their own risk management philosophies. A simple example for that, our Reinsurance could assist you when you send your drilling program by giving you advice in case there is any additional risk by applying your program and recommend changing some methods.

Hereunder, an idea about some of the coverage for the oil & gas industry

Working onshore Exploration and production:

- Property physical damage including removal of wreck/ debris and sue/labor.
- Operation extra expenses, including control of well, redrilling and seepage and pollution, Ect...
- Comprehensive General Third Party Liabilities with or without pollution.
- Minor Construction works.
- Transport, Storage and Utilisation.
- Business Interruption, including estimation of contingent risks and max. loss scenarios.
- Business Interruption / Contingent Business Interruption
- Sabotage and Terrorism.

“You Do Not Have To Worry
As There Is Excellent Securities”